COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Fireworks

No report given

Training

There is a 2-day NFPA 13 sponsored by the National Fire Sprinkler Association class scheduled for November 9/10.

Public Education

FPAN's current chairperson had to step down due to other commitments and we are looking to fill the position if possible, if you would like to fill the position contact a member of the E-board.

Golf Tournament

The committee is planning to have a meeting in January to make preparation of organizing the 2011 tournament, if you would like to be involved please attend the meeting when announced.

ASSOCIATION CORRESPONDENCE

Mike Hect (Elko) mentioned they might be losing their Deputy Fire Marshal. If the City Council approves, there may be an opening soon.

OLD BUSINESS

Officer elections –Michelle Peltier has been elected Vice President and Sylvia Lee has been elected Treasurer.

Membership Dues – Invoices will be sent out to the membership in December.

NEW BUSINESS

Strategic Planning – On September 3, a meeting was held. The outcome was that our #1 plan is the Promotion of the Association & Education. We start with our members, and then extend to the public. If we train children, they will train their parents. Our second plan is for Policy Revision and Implementation. Requests have been coming for donations to various charities. A donation policy letter is being drafted for review of the E-board to be more inline with the mission of the association.

GOOD AND WELFARE FOR THE ASSOCIATION

President McCollins acknowledged those members that were at the meeting today and continued to stress the importance of keeping the association a viable component to Life Safety and Education.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn was made at 14:12 by Dan Bushkin and seconded by Ed Kaminski.
